

“THE WRITING CENTER”

St. Joseph School of Nursing offers a Writing Center! Instructor Dr. Mary Ann Sullivan is pleased to offer this writing resource here on the Nashua campus. Located on the first floor in Room 124, the center is open to all members of the St. Joe’s academic community who are looking for writing support. From brainstorming a topic to fine tuning a final draft, the center’s dual purpose is to help you write a better paper and become a more effective writer.

The Writing Center Offers:

- One-to-one conferences from a 45-minute appointment to a 5-minute walk-in.
- Individual and small group instruction on such diverse topics as APA format, essay structure, avoiding plagiarism, and using transitional devices.
- E-mail accessibility for anything from a specific writing question to an on-line writing conference.
- A collection of print and on-line resources.

Please seek Dr. Sullivan out and let her know how she can help!

The Writing Center (Room 124) will be open during posted hours on weekdays. Students are also able to receive assistance via email: Dr. Sullivan- msullivan@metrocast.net
